

LEADER & BERKON LLP

Leader & Berkon delivers value and excellent results for its clients by never losing sight of the fact that it is the client's case, the client's reputation and the client's brand that are on the line.

With a sharp focus on commercial and securities litigation as well as products liability and mass tort defense, Leader & Berkon provides market-leading service and responsiveness to go along with its substantial litigation, arbitration and trial experience. Learning each client's business and understanding its needs and goals in each situation is of paramount importance to the firm's successful representation.

Now with some 20 experienced litigators in its Manhattan office, Leader & Berkon has the critical mass to handle major complex cases, while it maintains the flexibility and agility not found in larger firms.

In these challenging economic times, Leader & Berkon's size, cost-structure and understanding of risk-sharing through alternative billing make Leader & Berkon the right choice for clients seeking the value that comes from top-quality problem solving, outstanding results and a better price model.
